

PRIME NAVIGATION SHIPPING

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title : Junior Operator

Department

Operations Department

Location

On-site / N.Ionia-Athens

Job Type

Full-time

Overview

Join Prime Navigation Shipping & Services, a leading Greek weather routing bureau specialized in vessel monitoring, voyage optimization, weather risk management, and environmental compliance (including CII, EUAs, FuelEU Maritime, and emissions tracking).

Key Responsibilities

- Support the monitoring of vessel performance, routing, and environmental KPIs.
- Assist in the preparation of voyage assessments and emissions reports
- Collaborate with our weather and compliance teams to ensure smooth daily operations
- Contribute to digital tools and analytics used in live vessel tracking and regulatory reporting.

Qualifications

Education

- Graduates in Maritime Studies, Maritime Business, Shipping Management,
- 2nd officers with Educational background in Maritime Studies, Shipping, Logistics, or related fields.

Experience

- No relevant experience is required.

Skills

- Strong organizational and multitasking abilities
- Basic understanding of international maritime regulations
- Interest in weather systems, vessel efficiency, and emission controls
- Fluent in English; teamwork and communication skills are a must.

Prerequisites: Candidates must have already completed their studies or have only a minimal number of pending courses (to be completed within the next 3 months).

Competencies

- This role is ideal for individuals passionate about shipping, performance analysis, and digital tools that support cleaner and safer maritime operations.
-

Working Conditions

- Full time
 - On-site
 - 1 shift required per week
-

Compensation and Benefits

- Salary based on skills with potential of future upgrade.
-

Application Process

Please send your resume at our email : hr@primenavship.com

Why join us? Prime Navigation Shipping is the only fully Greek-operated firm in our space, with a commitment to innovation, knowledge transfer, and real operational impact. Be part of a growing team shaping the future of smart, sustainable shipping.